

NOMAD Farms Summer Camp 2015 Farm Stewards in Training Information

Come prepared to work hard, get dirty, play hard, enjoy and care for the land!
You are invited! NOMAD Farms is excited to invite you to volunteer for our first Farm Summer Camp. We are looking for middle school, high school, and college students to be Farm Stewards in Training. No farm/outdoor experience needed! Together, with the young farmers, you will learn about and experience sustainable farming, caring for the animals, farm and nature relationships, character building, and exploring the wonder of God's creation and understanding your role in stewardship of it.

Why do you want to spend a week this summer on NOMAD Farms?

- You get to be on the farm every day for a week. It's the best adventure!
- You get to meet people of all ages who are amazing and amazingly different.
- You get to experience life on a farm (caring for the animals, garden, soil, land, etc.).
- You get to know well and be a role model for the young farmers.
- You get to work hard, play hard, get dirty, and laugh often!

Who? Students, ages 14-22, who enjoy being outside, work well with young children, and have a willingness to lead and learn.

When? June 22-26 8:45am-2:30pm
Orientation is Friday June 19th.

What do I bring?

- your smiling face
- reliable transportation
- towel
- reusable water bottle (with name on it)
- sunscreen
- bag lunch
- modest bathing suit/change of clothes for water play

What does NOMAD Farms provide?

- invaluable opportunities to learn about farming and the land, make special friendships, have lots of fun
- farm hat
- daily farm stand snack
